Dear Mr O'Gorman

Your late father's estate

I am writing to advise that by clause 4 of his Will, the deceased made the following bequest:

"I give free of tax to my son Frank O'Gorman the sum of Twenty Thousand Pounds (£20,000)"

You will appreciate that it will be some while yet before I can write further concerning this bequest but perhaps in the meantime you will kindly confirm that your address is correctly shown at the top of this letter.

Yours sincerely

CAROLINE LANGFORD

Dear Mr O'Gorman

Your late father's estate

Further to my letter of the 2nd August I am pleased now to enclose a cheque in your favour for £20,000 being the legacy left to you under the terms of your father's Will. I would be grateful if you could please acknowledge safe receipt by signing and returning the enclosed form of receipt.

Whilst writing it has also come to light that there is a Prudential policy number 155779055 which is apparently written on your own life and this is therefore now enclosed and the receipt acknowledges it as well.

Yours sincerely

CAROLINE LANGFORD
