

Give us your views

Which? members can now rate and review products at which.co.uk. Whether your experience has been good or bad, we want to hear from you. Your comments will sit alongside the results of our expert tests, helping other members to get an overall picture of a product

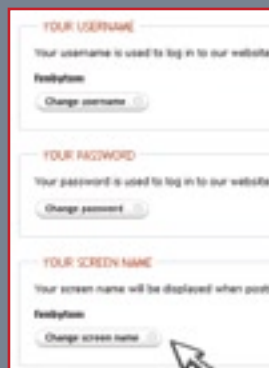

How to do it

Set up your screen name

Log in to www.which.co.uk as you would normally, entering your username and password. Click on 'Your account' in the top-right corner of the home page. Scroll down till you see 'Your screen name'. Click the 'Change screen name' button.

Choose a screen name – it must be at least six characters long and contain a combination of letters and numbers. Enter the screen name and click 'Update'.

Rate and review products

Once you have a screen name, you're ready to go. Find the product you want to review and click on the 'Customer views' tab (see picture, right). Give the product a rating from very poor to excellent by clicking on one of the grey ticks – the ticks turn green and show each rating as you roll your mouse over them. Give your review a title, then add your full review in the box headed 'What is your experience of using this product?'. When you've finished, simply click on 'Post my view' – and it's done!
