Which? podcast

This month's Which? podcast is packed with information for drivers. Listen to our trusted opinion on new models such as the Mini Clubman and the Fiat 500, and find out why 2008 will be the year of the clean diesel – should you switch? And if you're buying a satnav in the January sales, we name our favourite models and explain how navigation systems are likely to become smarter in the coming months.

Download the podcast from 20 December at www.which.co.uk/podcast.
