Camcorders made simple

HDD, SD, DVD, Mini-DV...choosing a camcorder can be tricky, especially when you consider the number of models available, add in high definition and standard definition recording systems, and throw video editing compatibility into the mix, too. In our latest podcast, our experts unravel the camcorder mystery and explore the best options for different kinds of movie-makers. Go to www.which.co.uk/podcast to download it.

Tips for a greener life

Want to go green but not sure where to start? In the new Greener Living section on which.co.uk you'll find answers on everything, from the best low-energy light bulbs to buy to how to cut down on your water and energy use.

We also explode common eco myths and reveal 20 simple changes that could see you on your way to a greener lifestyle. Visit www.which.co.uk/greenerliving to find out more.

KIA PRO_CEE'D FIRST DRIVE

The car's the star on which.co.uk – the Kia Pro_ceed, in fact. Our experts recently got behind the wheel of this sporty new hatchback – you can see the results in our first drive video (also see p10). Does its nippy acceleration make up for tricky reversing? Make your mind up at www.which.co.uk/kiaproceed.

You can also sign up to our weekly car email at www.which.co.uk/cars-email to get the latest motoring news and reports, hot deals and first drives.
