What's new on which.co.uk

Try our online video guides

Did you know iTunes has a smart function that can automatically generate a playlist based on your favourite musical genre or composer? Find out more in our 'How to Master iTunes' video – one of the latest additions to the which.co.uk video library.

Head to www.which.co.uk/advice where you can also find video how-to guides on setting up a home cinema kit, energy-efficient tumble drying, reading your utility bills and protecting your luggage.

Save on car fuel

Ever wondered how fuel efficient your car really is? Our online fuel calculator can give you the answer. Just go to www.which.co.uk/fuelcalculator and enter some simple data to find out your car's true mpg figure.

If you don't like the results, our lowdown on green car technologies from diesel hybrid to liquid hydrogen cells could give you fuel for thought. And our guide to road tax could help you decide on your next purchase – as could our first drives of new models including the Ford Fiesta and Toyota Yaris and a video first drive of the new Honda Jazz.

TIPS FOR A GREENER HOME

Want to go greener but not sure where to start? A tour of the which.co.uk green home will give you plenty of ideas – whether you want to make small lifestyle changes or try something on a larger scale.

Go to www.which.co.uk/greenhome and simply click on each room to find out what you can do to make your home more efficient, from simple things like recycling and composting, to bigger projects such as adding solar panels or insulating your loft.
